40.8	As you enter Vicq TL – easily missed (green post box on left, pedestrian crossing sign on right)
40.9	TL again into Rue du Radet
41.0	TL at the triangular island junction with no signs
42.1	SO (sign Saulx-Marchais) then...
42.2	BL into Rue de La Tuilerie - bumpy road
42.6	Stop SO, and on over the D11 (42.9) (sign Beynes 3)
44.6	TR in Beynes as the main D119 merges from the left with no give way on either road

	It is recommended that you find somewhere to eat in Beynes as our usual stop at the airport is closed this year. The Brasserie du Chateau in the main street is open and another one (possibly a Japanese restaurant) which is a few yards beyond the point where we turn up the hill should be open. On the corner as you turn up the hill there is a small commercial centre on your right. There is a pizza place in there which may be open but we were unable to check this. Stay on D119 as it twists through Beynes (don't turn off left!)
45.2	Just after leaving Beynes turn left off dual carriageway onto D119 Thiverval & Plaisir. Follow this bendy road uphill past the airport and along the top.

53.2	TR at roundabout uphill on the D12 Versailles
54.5	O 2 nd exit to go left on main D11 Versailles
	Stay on this road through many lights and on under the motorway bridge (56)
	Continue on the D11 through many lights and junctions through St. Cyr L'Ecole until you come up to a set of lights at the even more major D10. (If you do not want to go to Versailles park turn right here and follow the directions to the hotel)
57.0	There are 2 lanes here and you must be in the left hand one or you will be forced right so you need to be in the middle of the traffic – yuk

Route notes for 2018 Hayling Cycle Ride

57.2	A cycle track begins alongside this busy road – get up onto it. After a long straight section you come to a slip road just before a traffic light junction (58.7) on a gradual right hand bend.
58.7	There is a sign for Parc & Matelots here which shows you have to take the slip road off right then turn left to cross the dual carriageway at lights and into the Palace grounds. The small gate should be open even if the large ones are not. There is a pay booth just inside the grounds – bikes are free. SO down until you get to a car park at the ornamental lake. Go through the gates to your right, round the end of the lake (view of Palace up to right), through the gates on the other side and you are next to a café which is the finish. (59).

Route notes for 2018 Hayling Cycle Ride

23.8	O SO towards and through Oinville
26.8	At the end of the village the café on the left hand side (Le Moncient) is the first official break and check stop of the day.
	Stop to be checked in by support

Route notes for 2018 Hayling Cycle Ride

	After the break carry on through Breuil-en-Vexin but beware you non-French readers of the daft and dangerous "Priority a droite" French road rule. A 4x4 shot out from the right as we drove through on the recce. Most French towns have replaced this daft rule with apparently silly stops next to side roads on the main roads in towns and villages but this town has yellow warning signs written in French - beware.
28.5	SO where D913 goes off left on right hand bend. You are now on D130 to Saily. (30.5) Stay on D130 where Drocourt goes off left.
31.4	O 2nd exit on D142 Villers (yes there are 2 D142's - ho hum)
	Stay on the D142 Villers until you climb up to Villeneuve
33.8	Just after the Villeneuve village turn off left towards Cherence
34.2 & 35.5	X SO towards Cherence.
35.8	At this junction keep SO (sign D100 route-des-Cretes). After passing Cherence this road has some spectacular views of the Seine Valley. It is worth pulling in to one of the viewing points on your left for a look.
39.4	GW TR downhill on the D913 for a short way
39.5	TL onto C3 (becomes C4) to Gommecourt
40.4	Stop SO now on D200 Limetez-Villez
42.7	Stop TR (ignore the no right turn sign which applies to lorries)
43.5	Stop TL onto D5 Vernon
44.2	O SO past Monet's garden and on to Vernon. Do not use the cycle track as it goes off route into town. As you enter the town follow the road as it passes a sports field on the left then bends left then right up to a roundabout at 46.7.
46.7	O The route takes the 2 nd exit towards Gisors and Beauvais but... there are a number of places to eat in the main part of Vernon, which is over the river from this roundabout but they are off route. if you take this option come back to this roundabout and turn towards Gisors and Beauvais.
47.2	Lights TL towards Les Andelys (white sign)

Route notes for 2018 Hayling Cycle Ride

	You are now on the D313 which you follow through Pressagny, Notre Dame-de L'Isle and Port Mort towards Les Andelys. There is a nasty little climb out of Port Mort.
56.5	O SO - do not turn right onto this main road
	Just the other side of the roundabout turn right towards Bouafles. Follow this road on through Bouafles and Vezillon towards Les Andelys.
58.6	O TR into Les Andelys.
59.2	Turn off left to Petit Les Andelys next to sign above shop "Pain Patisserie". Follow the one way system round past the church then follow signs for Val St Martin.
60.6	TL onto D313 towards Muids along a long flat road near the river
63.9	Enter Muids which is a long strung out village. When you get to the church there is a bar opposite which has become popular as an afternoon break stop in recent years. They are expecting us. After the church turn right onto D313 towards Ande, Louviers and Rouen.
66	Just after leaving town take the right fork onto D65 towards Pitres
67.5	At the complex 5 way junction opposite the long building in Herqueville TR at T then immediately fork off left on D19 to and through Connelles. Carry on through Amfreville along the river
73.2	Fork left off the D19 just after Le Val Pitan to Pitres, over railway crossing
73.8	Cross small river bridge into Pitres BR just after the bridge
73.9	Lights TL onto Rue Bourgerue. The road bears to the right past the school (cyclists only).
74.3	T TR and follow this road up out of town to another T Junction then TR again
74.8	O Take 2 nd exit over this main road junction onto the D20 YMare. The initial gradual gradient up through the trees gets steeper near the top but it is the last serious climb before Rouen. As you emerge from the trees you will see a water tower some distance ahead. Head for it going straight past all junctions as the road becomes the D95 passing right next to the tower which is on your right.

Route notes for 2018 Hayling Cycle Ride

77.7	O Stay on D95 Franqueville

	MERCURE CENTRE CATHEDRALE, 7 RUE CROIX DE FER, ROUEN, 76000
	Tomorrows ride will leave from the front of the Ibis Styles at 8.30am.

Day 4 – Rouen to Le Havre

	Leave the hotel turning right along the river, passing several bridges and traffic lights following signs for Dieppe, Le Havre (N15)
1.5	Where the road splits three ways we need the middle road which is the D982 for Canteleu and Duclair. Be careful as the road is very wide and busy. Go straight on under the flyover (middle lane) then just past the Esso garage.
2.4	TR onto D51 Maromme and...
2.7	SO at 1 st roundabout
3.1	At next roundabout go straight on under the motorway and stay on the D51 into Maromme
