

Day 6 – Le Havre to Caen

Distances are in miles.

O & o= big & mini roundabouts, T=T junction, GW=give way, TR & TL mean Turn Right or Left, BR & BL mean Bear Right or Left, SO=Straight On, X=Crossroads

	Route starts from outside The Mercure Hotel. Please be aware of the many diagonal railway tracks which cross the road in this huge and busy port. Our route minimises them but they are still there and deadly if you are in a group and not paying attention. The roads in the port are very busy with heavy traffic and large lorries so please stay on the new cycle paths where possible.
0.0	Set off in the left lane then take the first left then after the bollards get into the right hand lane
0.1	Lights TR over the bridge (green sign Car Ferries)
0.2	Large O with black and yellow buoy. Take the 4th exit (the one after the port entrances). Sign for "Le Docks".
